Scope and Contents Note:

This collection contains the records for the Russell Sage College Faculty Committees from 1930-1997 when the college merged and became The Sage Colleges (See: TSC.Faculty Committees for later years). It is mostly made up of meeting minutes, memos, correspondence, financial data and reports.

Committee on College Government (1967-71) was formed to ensure the implementation of the policies and procedures set forth in the American Association of University Professors "Statement on Government of Colleges and Universities." The Committee is made of up elected officials from the tenured members of faculty, administration and departments. In 1971 it was brought under the umbrella of Faculty Senate – Ad-Hoc Committee.

Curriculum Committee (1941-1997) files are a collection of different departments and courses being voted on and considered for either added or changes in the RSC curriculum. Also included are meeting minutes.

Department Chairs (1974-90) contains reports, correspondence and meetings with the department chairs.

Faculty Development Committee (1982-92) contains meeting minutes, correspondence, financials, and other meetings/workshops involved with faculty development.

Faculty Meetings (1935-1996) deal with general faculty meetings along with specified faculty groups. Some correspondence may be included.

Faculty Senate (1930-1997) are comprised of Senate meetings and minutes, correspondence to and from the Senate, budgets and other miscellaneous items. There are specific copies from Secretary Francisco Melero's collection in the mid 1990's. As of 1997 the Faculty Senate became known as the TSC Council of Faculty. For information on those records please see TSC Faculty Collection. Faculty Senate was known as; Faculty 1937-38, Faculty Council 1938-70, and Faculty Senate 1970-1997.

Program Review Committee (1984-89) contains meeting minutes, correspondence and specifics from individual programs.
